

HUMESTON, Martin Carlyle

Obituary

HUMESTON, Martin Carlyle - 75, Windsor, Hants Co., died May 24, 1998, in Hants Community Hospital, Windsor. Born November 9, 1922, in Victoria, B.C., he was a son of the late Carlyle and Ethel (Haley) Humeston.

He received his education in Victoria and was a veteran of the Second World War. He worked for the British Columbia Provincial Police and later moved to Nova Scotia and was a social worker with Kings County Social Services for 23 years. After retirement, he and his wife Reba, with their children, moved to Prince Edward Island and opened a home for foster children. After some time, they moved back to Nova Scotia & opened a home for special care in St. Croix, Hants Co.

Surviving are his wife, the former Reba Cochrane; daughters, Valerie, Sackville; Mari Anne, at home; stepdaughters, Terri, Alberta; Donna, Ontario; Dee, Windsor; Carole, Julie, Falmouth; Jaclyn, Wolfville; stepsons, Tim, Windsor; Sterling, Prince Edward Island; sister, Dorothy Humeston, Victoria; brother, George, Victoria. He was predeceased by his first wife, Phyllis Dargie Cunningham; son, David.

There will be no visitation by request. Funeral 2 p.m. Thursday in Lindsay's Windsor Funeral Home, 194 King St., President Fred Hudson, of The Church of Jesus Church of Latter-Day Saints, officiating. Burial at a later date in Royal Oak Cemetery, Victoria.
Donations to any charity.