Keith C. Sedgman (1917 - 2013)

Obituary

It is with great sadness that the family of Keith C. Sedgman announces his passing in the Palliative Care ward at Saanich Peninsula Hospital on December 10, 2013 at the age of 96. He leaves behind Marjorie, his wife and soul mate of 72 years, and his children, David and Roma and their families.

Dad had a full life and an enquiring mind. His love of gardening was a perfect outlet for his creative talents. Born in Victoria on March 16, 1917, his dreams of becoming a concert pianist or a doctor were cut short by the Great Depression and later, WWII, where he served as a Naval Intelligence Officer. Dad held management positions in the retail lumber business and participated in the Victoria construction industry throughout his career. Along with gardening and music, he loved boating, golf and travel. He was loyal to his friends and very generous with his time and energy. He will be remembered at Beechwood in Sidney for his Monday night music offerings and his amazing garden, which he tended up to the end.

A celebration of his life will be held at Shady Creek United Church (7176 East Saanich Road) at 2 p.m. on Thursday, December 19. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the charity of your choice.

Published in The Times Colonist from Dec. 14 to Dec. 16, 2013