

ALICE BRYAN (née WILKINSON) (1915 - 1993)

Alice was in the first graduating class at MDHS in 1932. She married John B. Partington and they had a daughter Marcia. She later married Hugh F. Bryan, a longtime family friend.

Alice had a busy life married. She volunteered during the war, worked at the N.Vanc. Fish Cannery, became a Corseteer & owned her own shop, was Pres. of N.V. Business Women's Club. Board & fed flight crews in Dog Creek & Terrace when they had to overnight.

Also in Terrace drove taxi to & from Smithers & Pr. Rupert. She curled in Terrace-a sport she always said she'd do when she turned 40. In Tofino she did & went where or when anyone asked of her. A terrific Mother taking Marcia to beach, roller skating (at 3 yrs), etc. She ran the lunch kitchen at Queen Mary School. She loved & adored her grandchildren.

- as told by her daughter, Marcia Martin
