Cora Browne SHAW

1926 - 2022

SHAW, Cora E. (formerly Browne, nee Halton) March 18, 2022 Peacefully, on March 18, 2022. Cora was born in Victoria in 1926 and lived here all her life except for 8 years in Mackenzie when husband Ted Browne, a second generation Victorian, was the Chief Forester for Finlay Forest Industries. While there, Cora served on the library board and local Community Arts Council. She was a member of Prince George Weavers Guild and taught courses in handweaving for the College of New Caledonia in Mackenzie. She attended Mt Douglas and Oak Bay High Schools, Victoria College, and graduated from the University of British Columbia (B.A.). She was a past president of the University Women's Club of Victoria and a life member of the UVic Retirees Association. Cora travelled extensively and visited many sites, historical and otherwise, on all continents including Antarctica. She was a volunteer at the Swan Lake Christmas Nature Sanctuary. She is predeceased by husbands Ted Browne (1988) and George Shaw (1997). She is survived by brother Noel Halton, nephew Geoffrey and niece Martha French. Donations in Cora's memory if desired may be made to the charity of one's choice. At Cora's request, there will not be a memorial service.

Published by The Times Colonist from Apr. 16 to Apr. 18, 2022.