

Funeral Arranged For Second Island Victim of Polio

Funeral services for Arthur Brian Cornish, 20, who died in Royal Jubilee Hospital Wednesday, the second polio victim on Vancouver Island this year, will be held Friday at Sands Mortuary Limited.

Mr. Cornish, a resident of Victoria for the past 14 years, was born in Colgate, Sask.

He is survived by his wife, Valerie, 989 Island Highway; his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Cornish; two sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Anne Martin, Edmonton, and Joan, Prince Robert Drive, Island Highway.

Canon F. Pike will officiate at the services at 10.30 a.m. Friday.

CORNISH—At the Royal Jubilee Hospital on August 5, 1953, Arthur Brian Cornish, age 20 years, born at Colgate, Saskatchewan, and a resident of Victoria for the past 14 years, late residence, 989 Island Highway. Survived by his loving wife, Valerie, at home; his parents, Dr. A. L. Cornish, and Mrs. E. M. Cornish, two sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Anne Martin, of Edmonton, Alberta, and Joan, of Prince Robert Drive, Island Highway.

Funeral services will be held at the Sands Mortuary Limited, "Memorial Chapel of Chimes," on Friday, August 7, 1953, at 10.30 a.m. Canon F. Pike officiating. Interment in the Royal Oak Burial Park.